

Boston Port Act

The Boston Port Act, closed the port of Boston to all trade until residents compensated the East India Company for the cost of the tea destroyed in the Boston Tea Party. This law was one of the Coercive, or Intolerable Acts, passed by Parliament in 1774 to punish the inhabitants of Massachusetts for the Tea Party.