

First Edition, Declaration of Independence

This image is one of the first printed copies of the Declaration of Independence. John Dunlap, official printer to the Continental Congress, produced about two hundred copies after the Congress voted to approve the document. The text was then sent throughout the country and abroad to be read aloud and reproduced in newspapers.