

Abigail Adams to John Adams

This letter describes Abigail Adams's reaction to the battle of Bunker Hill and the attack on Charlestown, Massachusetts. Adams expresses pride in the American cause and indicates that she has decided to stay in the family home even though she has been warned to evacuate. She mourns the death on the battlefield of a brave friend, Dr. James Warren.