

Jefferson to Madame de Tessé

In this letter to Madame de Tessé, who Jefferson met while serving as minister to France, Jefferson shares his appreciation for the classical architecture he had seen during his travels in France. He also suggests how the French assembly should organize.