

Jefferson to William Stephens Smith

In this letter to Smith, who would go on to fight in South America, Jefferson thanks him for sending a copy of the Constitution, and notes the importance of term limits. He also suggests that well-executed and honorable rebellions should be accepted and encouraged to preserve liberty.