

Jolley Allen in The Boston Post Boy

This newspaper advertisement shows the variety of imported goods that Jolley Allen sold in his Boston shop in 1768. Most of Allen's business involved selling cloth and millinery items, which his advertisement describes in great detail. He also sold gloves, shoes, spices, china, glass, tea, and other imported goods.