

Lieutenant-Governor Colden to the Earl of Dartmouth

This letter from Lt. Governor Cadwallader Colden to the Earl of Dartmouth reports on events in the colonies after Parliament's passage of the Coercive Acts. Colden anticipates the passage of a non-importation, non-exportation agreement and notes that there is a call for delegates from all the colonies to gather to plan a strategy of united resistance.