

35th Annual Naturalization Keynote

In this July 4 naturalization ceremony speech at Monticello, General Colin Powell uses his family history and a close reading of the Preamble of the Declaration of Independence to discuss American immigration history, and directly addresses his audience, informing them of their new responsibilities as American citizens.