

44th Annual Naturalization Keynote

In this July 4 naturalization ceremony speech at Monticello, the architect IM Pei begins by admiring Jefferson's skill in designing Monticello and his interest in exploring other cultures. As an immigrant himself, Pei recalls his experiences at Angel Island and his own naturalization ceremony, identifying with the thoughts and feelings of his audience.