

Jefferson to Abigail Adams

While serving as U.S. Minister to France, Jefferson kept in touch with those close to the Constitutional Convention. In this letter to Abigail Adams, he mentions the delivery of news regarding Shay's Rebellion and the receipt of papers on the debates in Congress in exchange for information about Parisian current events.