

Jefferson to John Adams (Audio)

This is a dramatic reading of a letter Jefferson wrote to John Adams while serving as minister to France in 1787. This example provides a look into Jefferson's thoughts on both the state of European politics, the revolutionary movement in France, and the current state of the American Constitution.