

Statute for Religious Freedom (Audio)

This is a dramatic reading of Jefferson's Bill for Religious Freedom which became a statute (law) in 1786. Along with writing the Declaration of Independence and founding the University of Virginia, he counted the Statute for Religious Freedom as one of the great achievements of his life.