

Thomas Jefferson—The Man, the Myth, the Legend

Summative Assessment

Your task is to create a visual representation of the person you believe Jefferson to have been. You can include images, text, video, speech bubbles, poems, or any other manner that you feel best reflects the man and legend, Thomas Jefferson.

Possible project outcomes might be presented using a Prezi, Glogster, Animoto, Sensory figure, Infographic, performance, podcast, or any other project option that you prefer.

Your project must include the following criteria:

- ✓ At least five facts you feel are important about Jefferson's life including at least one fact about his contributions to education, innovations, and role in slavery.
- ✓ The following terms or phrases: Monticello, Mulberry Row, academical village, freedom, equality, liberty, Declaration of Independence,
- ✓ Creatively integrated and displayed, with main ideas thoroughly expressed
- ✓ The final product is free of grammatical, spelling and punctuation/capitalization errors

Due: _____