

Document Based Lesson Extension

Creating Your Own DBQ

- 1) Divide students into groups of 3-4 members.
- 2) Have students choose a topic related to Thomas Jefferson.
- 3) Students will create a focus question similar to the DBQ prompt.
- 4) Students should find 6-7 documents related to their focus question.
- 5) Students should type focus question and copy documents onto a Word Document.

Goal: To Provide students with extra knowledge about the creation of the Document Based Question and the use of primary sources.

Assessment: Students can review class DBQs and analyze documents.
